

Contact for 4240 Architecture:
Tami Hausman, Capelin Communications
212/779-4949 - thausman@capelin.com

News

4240 ARCHITECTURE ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTOR OF INTERIOR DESIGN

Marcia Weese, Director of Design, 4240 Interiors

Award-winning interior designer Marcia Weese brings her national reputation to 4240.

Denver [CO], June 2007 – 4240 Architecture Inc., an 80-person international design firm with a portfolio of 7 million square feet of projects and a growing interiors practice, announces the appointment of Marcia Weese as Director of Design, 4240 Interiors. Weese’s expertise in interior design allows 4240 to offer a comprehensive range of services to its clients.

Contemporary handknotted rug from The Prairie Collection by Marcia Weese

According to 4240 President Peter H. Dominick, Jr., FAIA, Weese now heads the firm’s Interior Design Department, which allows 4240 to provide interior design as a separate service to its corporate, residential, and hospitality clients. Weese brings a solid portfolio of interiors projects throughout the country, from San Francisco to New York and numerous places in between. Plus, she is also a noted carpet designer and artist.

Dominick praises Weese’s “interest in craft, function, and technology. Her design approach fits exceptionally well with 4240’s tradition of projects that express their particular purpose and place.” He continues that “Marcia’s nationally-recognized design expertise expands 4240’s ability to provide the highest level of service to our clients.”

[More]

The St. Julien Hotel and Spa, Boulder, Colorado

The founder of Weese + Design, which she established in 1985 in Chicago, Weese has worked in such diverse places as Colorado, Illinois, California, New Mexico, New York, and Massachusetts.

Throughout her 30-year career, she has served as a visiting juror, art instructor, and art teacher at such prestigious institutions as the Illinois Institute of Technology and the Art Institute of Chicago. Weese has also designed an award-winning collection of hand-woven carpets, exhibited her fine art in galleries across the United States, and collaborated on a book about mid-century modern furniture in Chicago. She has a Bachelor's degree from Bennington College and a Master's degree from Hunter College [New York].

The Spa at Vail Front Door, Vail, Colorado

4240 Interiors specializes in hospitality/resort projects, corporate and workplace environments, multi-family housing, and high-end private residences. . Notable projects are Montelucia, a resort and lifestyle community in Scottsdale, AZ; two projects for Vail Front Door – new Skier Services facilities and a Spa – which create a new gateway to the ski mountain from Vail Village; and a new hotel at Teton Village in Jackson Hole, Wyoming.

Background: 4240 Architecture, a talented team of architects, planners and interior designers, is a new iteration of a firm formed in the 1970s. 4240 designs buildings, community frameworks, and spaces ranging from entire neighborhoods, resorts, and commercial architecture to interiors and private homes. Established in 2003, the firm's offices in Chicago [located at 42° latitude] and Denver [located at 40° latitude] comprise "4240." In just four years, the firm has grown into an 80-person team of professionals who are equally fluent in designing for urban settings and high-mountain properties – and for just about every context in between. For more information, please visit 4240 Architecture's Web site at www.4240arch.com.

###